Dear brethren:

The Chinese are very family oriented, and this is manifested in many ways throughout their cultural customs, societal relationships, and even their language. When same-sex marriage was being debated in the legislative body quite some time ago, thousands of protesters packed the streets in Taipei in opposition to the measure. Despite overwhelming popular rejection, homosexual marriage was codified into law, anyway. The impetus for passage obviously came from international pressure, from both governments and from nongovernmental organizations. The drumbeat around the world now is to legally protect pedophiles. The independent news media is replete with coverage of this development. Notice the title and brief excerpt from a recent report on one such news media website: The People's Voice <contact@thepeoplesvoice.tv>

LGBTQ+ Leaders Sign WEF Treaty to Accept Pedophiles as 'Legally Protected Minority'

According to the WEF, criticizing pedophiles is "hate speech" and governments must crackdown on anybody who refuses to accept minor attracted persons in their community. <https://rumble.com/v55y28s-lgbtq-leaders-sign-wef-treaty-to-accept-pedophiles-as-legally-protected-min.html>

International bodies such as the World Economic Forum and others are openly pushing to legally protect the pedophiles from the consequence of sexually preying on our children, and are calling for censoring and prosecuting for "hate speech" those who would condemn the abominations of these depraved minds. Decades ago when homosexuality began to be tolerated, then accepted, and finally protected, the wise and more astute warned that it would not end with sodomites. The breadth of the depravity to which we now are witnesses is vindication of their predictions.

Christians hate sin, but do not hate the sinner. If it were otherwise, we would end up hating ourselves, for "all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). We teach and preach nothing more than what our Lord commands, and to which we ourselves have submitted. There must be acknowledgment of sin as defined by God's word, repentance, and immersion for the forgiveness of those sins (Acts 2:36-38). Contrary to hating these sinners, we have a concern for their souls, a concern sufficient to expose ourselves to being ridiculed, reviled, persecuted, and even potentially prosecuted for "hate speech." This is a sacrificial, charitable love for their eternal well-being. We want to be with them throughout all eternity, and in this life we want to extend full and complete fellowship to them as our brothers and sisters in our Lord's church. Yea, with God there is amazing grace as "the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7b). But there must be repentance (Luke 13:3,5), and the fruit of repentance (Matthew 3:8; Acts 26:20; Ephesians 5:8). Without the prerequisite of repentance, baptism "for the forgiveness of your sins" (Acts 2:38) is null and void. Only on God's terms is there salvation, for them, for us, and for all mankind.

The Lord's church does not hate these people. The only hate being manifested here is on the part of those who are calling for legal protection of pedophiles, insisting that "governments must crackdown on anybody who refuses to accept minor attracted persons in their community," and who declare that "criticizing pedophiles is 'hate speech'." Codifying their hatred into law necessarily implies ever increasing censorship and legal penalties for anyone teaching or advocating a biblical stance on social media and beyond. This makes Caesar and those sent by him to be complicit in their persecution of the righteous. They are "haters of God" (Romans 1:30). They are "haters of good" (1 Timothy 3:3). "Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness; Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!" (Isaiah 5:20).

Your servant in Christ,

Eugene F. Brzozowski
