Red Hill's October Series of lessons continues tonight at 6: p.m. Welcome Derrick Stiles, as he speaks about "Living Soberly, Righteously, and Godly".

There are several Ladies Day's happening in our area. Check the Events Board in foyer for complete information on each one. There are other events also listed for your interest.

SPECIAL CONTRIBUTION

Remember our contribution Sunday (20th) will be sent to the victims of flood in East TN.

WHAT IS AHEAD?

"Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest" (Joshua 1:9).

There was once a business man who was permitted to have one wish come true.

After some thought he wished for a newspaper dated two years in the future. Next thing he saw was the paper in his hand.

Turning to the stock market he made careful notes on stocks that had shown unusual growth. He would certainly make a fortune.

Then he turned to the obituary column out of curiosity. There he found his own obituary. He had suffered a heart attack and his funeral arrangements were spelled out in detail before him.

We may be tempted to believe if we could look into the future, things would be different.

But what is ahead for us? Is it fortune or is it an obituary? One thing that we have ahead, as a Christian, is God and a future.

He is one who will be present with us, if we are faithful each day no matter how many days are ahead.

Also, in the days ahead whenever that times comes, we will know where we are and if faithful, we will be in heaven eternally.

We can be assured that His grace will be sufficient for every time of need. Our times are in His hands. No need to wonder about tomorrow. Just live for Him today.
