Take Heart!

After being battered and tossed two solid weeks in a fierce storm at sea, "all hope that we should be saved was finally given up" (Acts 27:20).

Who can blame them? They had done everything humanly possible to keep the ship from disintegrating; but nothing seemed to help. Imagine the seasickness, discouragement, and exhaustion!

Then Paul spoke up: "I urge you to take heart" (27:22). What?! Are you some kind of Pollyanna?

No, Paul wasn't an irrepressible optimist! He had good reason for what he said. God had sent an angel to assure him that all 276 people aboard the ship would survive.

Paul set forth three crucial reasons for his confidence:

1. I belong to this God (27:23a).
2. I serve this God (27:23b).
3. I believe this God (27:25).

Christians can face the best and worst of times when we keep these critical points in mind. We belong to God. He values us and watches over us in all circumstances.

We serve God. He is worthy of our service whether our conditions are pleasant or dreadful. We believe God. Our confidence in Him must not wane when severe trials come upon us.

Our God has communicated with us. No, He hasn't sent an angel to you or me as He did to Paul. But He has and still does speak by means of His inspired word.

He has assured us that "all things work together for God to those who love God, who are the called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28)

Take heart!
