Service is Not Spelled: SERVE-US

I saw the above title in a list of quotes for church bulletins. It represents, however, how so many evidently feel. Jesus knew that His apostles were struggling with an idea of superiority. Matthew records, "But Jesus called them to Himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them. Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave — just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many." (Matt. 20:25-28).

John recorded Jesus showing us how it is done.

After Jesus washed the disciples feet He said, "If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet." (John 13:14).

Paul also stressed this attitude of Jesus when he wrote, "For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached

You fell on Me." (Rom. 15:3). He is our perfect example of what it means to serve.

We are called to a life of service, focusing on the needs of others and not just ourselves. That requires us to look for opportunities to serve. "Let

each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others." (Phil. 2:4). Keep your eyes open — there are plenty of opportunities!
